Art Unit 3634

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Species I, drawn to Figures 1,2 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the grounds that it would appear that the embodiments of Figure 5 which is in Species 2 in addition to Figures 22,23,25,29 are very much related to the species as shown in Figures 1 and 2 and should also be processed in association therewith. This is not convincing for the applicant has failed to state for the record that the species are not patentably distinct from each and are merely obvious variants.

The applicant states that claims 1-6 read on the elected Species I. However, from an inspection of the claims it is noted that claim 2 recites the collapsible shade as comprising two compressible members which is beyond the scope of the elected species. Accordingly, in addition to claims 7-15, claims 2-6 have been withdrawn from consideration pursuant to 34 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Naterman. Naterman discloses a shade comprising a shade 29 of first and second materials forming a pocket 31,36, and a compressible member 14-20. That portion 19,20 of the compressible member of Naterman which extends beyond a portion of the perimeter boundary of the material portion of the shade 29 responds to a compressible member extending beyond the perimeter boundary of the material portion.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being unpatentable over Bruhl.

Bruhl discloses a shade comprising a material portion 6, compressible members 8,9 extending beyond the perimeter boundary of the material portion.

4. The following prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: Stanton et al, Huang '262 and '460, Chan, Zheng '147, '697, and '052, and Hwang.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to David M. Purol at telephone number (571) 272-6833.
